Re: MUR 4480

Dear Ms. Sealander:

I am representing Mr. Dick Morris in connection with the Complaint docketed at MUR 4480. This will constitute his response. Mr. Morris essentially received three types of reimbursement from the Campaign Committee. First, he received a daily allowance for his hotel bills. The daily allowance was less than the actual bill itself and thus could not have been used for the purposes specified in the letter sent to you by the Legal Affairs Council. Secondly, Mr. Morris received a meal allowance which was at the rate per day applicable to federal employees away from home. Finally, telephone calls placed by Mr. Morris were reimbursed in one fashion or another by the Campaign. Following Mr. Morris' resignation as an advisor, he advised the Campaign Committee of the phone numbers of Ms. Rowlands and others unrelated to official business. I am advised that the Campaign is in the process of deducting those amounts from the final settlement of monies due Mr. Morris.

I trust this responds to your inquiry and that you will feel free to call me if you have any further questions.

Yours very truly,

Jerry S. McDevitt
